Description

A mid 19th century chaise longue by Holland & Sons - London. c1870 Raised on 4 turned ebonized and gilt walnut legs and the original brass casters. The frame is of large country house proportions and is constructed of mixed timbers and in very good strong order with no loose joints. Stripped back ready for upholstery. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish. The legs have been at some point later painted over which has been mostly stripped back to its original finish. The decorative trim is lacking some of its gilt boarder.
