Description

A fabulous large19th century daybed almost certainly by Maple & Co. Raised on walnut legs with the original brass casters. Upholstered subtle yellow linen with contrasting yellow leafs and a touch of sun fading to one side. Fully buttoned throughout and with rope braid sealing off the base. The back and seat are sprung making this a very comfortable place to sit.

The same model with the same turned legs sold recently at the Guinness family sale at Elveden Hall by Swarders.

Structurally in good solid order and very much ready for use.

As with all my upholstered seating I do offer upholstery should you wish.

81cm wide
163cm deep
95cm high
43cm seat height

130cm seat depth
