Description

A handsome 19th century daybed. Raised on sabre shaped legs with large spoked J.W Lewty patent casters. The frame with covered with attractive mahogany veneer.

In good solid condition with light surface wear with the odd little chip but no losses.

The pad is currently in foam and is comfortable. We can change this to either feather or horse hair which it likely would have been originally.

For upholstery.

As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish.

48cm seat height
