Description

A good quality mid 19th century chaise longue of large country house. Raised on 4 tall turned walnut legs with the original Cope & Collinson brass casters. The frame is in good solid order with tight joints. The back arm is in pine and is removable, held in by screws and removes for upholstery. The back and arm retain the original horse hair fillings and the seat has been recently redone. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish. 42cm seat height
