Description

A mid 19th century armchair by Howard & Sons, London - England c1850. Raised on walnut legs with the original Cope & Collinson brass casters. Structurally in good solid order and ready for upholstery. The arms and back retain the original horsehair fillings and there is a fragment of the original Howard cotton lining. The seat is a later replacement. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish and we can supply a reproduction of Howard & Sons blue and white printed cotton lining. 35cm seat height
