Mid 19th Century Open Armchair Attr' Holland & Sons

Sold

Description

A shapely mid 19th century open armchair. The walnut frame on turned legs and splayed rear legs, all with the original Cope & Collinson gilt brass casters. One rear leg stamped 'W Bryson' Referring to William Bryson who's work is attributed to Holland & Sons either as an employee by the firm or works commissioned for the London based firm. The frame of the chair is sound with no loose joints. It has a dry patina which we like however this can be refinished to taste. Retaining its original Horsehair fillings and for upholstery. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish.
